

BiCoDa conference
“The States’ Stakes in Science”

July 10-12, 2013, ZiF, Bielefeld
“long table” room

Schedule

Wednesday July 10

8.45 Welcome address

session 1 Standardizing Practice in Medicine and Public Health,
organized by Leah McClimans (USC, Columbia)

9.00 - 10.00 A. M. Viens (Institute for Medical Ethics and History of Medicine, Ruhr-University Bochum)

The Role of Pandemic Plans in Ethical Preparedness

10.00 - 11.00 George Khushf (Philosophy, USC)

Standardizing Clinical Judgment: On the Logic of Quality Improvement Initiatives at US Hospitals

11.00 - 11.30 coffee break

11.30 - 12.30 Leah McClimans (Philosophy, USC)

Losing Control of Quality: The Rise of Outcome Measures in Quality of Care Research

12.30 - 2.00 lunch

session 2 Citizens' Stake in Science and Technology,
organized by Ann Johnson (USC, Columbia)

2.00 - 3.00 Allison Marsh (History, USC)

Rethinking a National Engineering Collection: A View from the Smithsonian

3.00 - 3.30 coffee break

3.30 - 4.30 Michael Glawson (Philosophy, USC) and Ann Johnson (History, USC)

What is the Citizen's Stake in Science? Setting the Boundaries of the State

4.45 - 6.15 keynote address

Theodore Porter (History, UCLA)

The Flight of the Indicator

Dinner in town (self-pay)

Thursday July 11

session 3 Science in a Regulatory Context, organized by Kevin Elliott (USC, Columbia)

9.00 - 10.00 Fern Wickson (Center for Biosafety, Tromsø, Norway)

Standardising Irresponsibility in Science for Policy?

10.00 - 11.00 Adam Kokotovich (Natural Resources Science, University of Minnesota)

title tba

11.00 - 11.30 coffee break

11.30 - 12.30 Kevin Elliott (Philosophy, USC) and Dan McKaughan (Philosophy, Boston College)

Non-Epistemic Values and the Multiple Goals of Regulatory Science

12.30 - 2.00 lunch

- session 4 Deliberating the environment - the state's stake,
organized by Astrid Schwarz (Darmstadt)
- 2.00 - 3.00 Claire Waterton (Sociology, Lancaster University)
 Agency and Regulation in the European 'State'
- 3.30 - 4.00 coffee break
- 4.00 - 5.00 Cheryce von Xylander (Philosophy, TU Darmstadt)
 Whose Global Eyeball? About National Metaphors and the Slippage from Public to Private Domain
- 5.00 - 5.15 coffee break
- 5.15 - 6.15 Matthew Kearnes (University of New South Wales, Sydney)
 New Water: The Cultural Politics of Waste Water Reuse

Dinner in town (self-pay)

Friday July 12

- session 5 Examination and Testing, organized by Andreas Kaminski
(Darmstadt)
- 9.00 - 10.00 John Carson (History, U of Michigan)
 Measuring Up: Testing, Expertise, and Public Reason
- 10.00 - 11.00 Andreas Gelhard (Philosophy, TU Darmstadt)
 title tba
- 11.00 - 11.30 coffee break
- 11.30 - 12.30 Wiebke Wiede (History, University of Trier)
 Aptitude Tests in the German Employment Exchange (1960s-1980s)

12.30 - 2.00 lunch

session 5 cont'd

2.00 - 3.00 Andreas Kaminski (Philosophy, TU Darmstadt)
From morality to prosperity: Intelligence as a matter of state

3.00 - 3.30 coffee break

session 6

Science in Nazi Germany: Competition, Expansion, Integration and the Foreign Gaze,
organized by Carsten Reinhardt (Bielefeld)

3.30 - 4.30 Jeffrey A. Johnson (History, Villanova University, PA)
Redrawing Physical-Chemical Boundaries in National Socialist Germany. Politics, International Competition, and Interdisciplinary Relations

4.30 - 4.45 coffee break

4.45 - 5.45 Florian Schmaltz (University of Frankfurt Max-Planck-Institute for History of Science Berlin)
Aeronautical Research in Nazi Germany. Expanding towards Big Science

6.00 - 7.30 BiCoDa meeting

Dinner in town (self-pay)